

24/3

BALLAST OFFICE CORPORATION, DUBLIN.

AN ACCOUNT of the Expense incurred by the BALLAST OFFICE CORPORATION, in erecting a Patent Slip at the North Wall, Dublin, and in Dredging and making Approaches and other Works near the said Slip, and connected therewith; and also, the Number and Description of Vessels repaired thereon, since the completion thereof, and the Income (if any) that has been derived therefrom.

TOTAL Expense of erecting the Patent Graving Slip at the North Wall, including cost of workmen's sheds, and other necessary buildings,
Three Thousand Two Hundred and Twenty-one Pounds Nineteen	£. 3,221 19 10
Shillings and Tenpence - - - - -	-

EXPENSE of Dredging and making Approaches, &c. - - - - Nil. —
 The excavations having been made for the purpose of supplying ballast to vessels.

NUMBER and Descriptions of Vessels repaired thereon:

Number - - - - -	Fifty-eight.
Description - - - - -	Light Ships—Light-house Tenders, Dredging Barges, Beacon Vessels, Ballast Galleys, and Lighters; all belonging to the Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin; and two private Yachts taken up by permission.

INCOME derived therefrom - - - - - Nil. —

All (except the yacht of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant (Marquis of Anglesea), and that of the Rev. Denis George, both taken up by permission), being the property of the Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin, for whose use the Slip was built.

Ballast Office, Dublin, }
 14th April 1830. }

William Bigger,
 Ballast Master, Port of Dublin.

J. Hanck, Clerk of Cheque.

DALLART OFFICE CORPORATION, DUBLIN.

AN ACCOUNT of the Expenses incurred by the BALANCE OFFICE CORPORATION, in erecting a Pencil Shop at the North Wall, Dublin, and in Directing and making Appliances and other
Works near the said Shop.

Ordered by The House of Commons, in the Fourth of April 1690.